RIPPLE OF WONDER

Came From the Spectators at Dreyfus Courtmartial.

GENERAL MERCIER FIGURES

In an Acrimonious Debate With the Defendant's Counsel.

IGNORED THE TRIAL OF ESTERHAZY.

Replies Indicated That Some of the Officers Withheld Certain Information From the Minister of War—Exciting Scenes.

Rennes, Aug. 24.—When the fourth session of the third week of the second trial by courtmartial of Captain Alfred Dreyfus, charged with treason, opened at the Lycee here Colonel Jouaust, president of the court, ordered that the evidence given by M. Penot, a friend of the late Colonel Sandherr, chief of the intelligence department, be read by the clerk.

It was to the effect that Colonel Sandherr said the Dreyfus family offered him 150,000 francs on condition that he would clear Dreyfus.

Maitre Demange, for the defense, disposed of this allegation by reading the actual note on the subject written by Sandherr, thereby proving the colonel's remarks had been distorted, Dreyfus' brothers having only said: "We are convinced of the innocence of our brother and will spend our entire fortune to discover the truth."

The testimony of the first witness, M. Linole, a former official of the government, was also in favor of Dreyfus, as it was an indirect contradiction of what M. De Brieuil deposed regarding the alleged intimacy of Dreyfus with the German attaché at the house of M. Bodson, a mutual friend.

The president of the court then called the next witness, Colonel Maurel, who was president of the Dreyfus courtmartial in 1894. The colonel was attired in a black frock coat and wore the red ribbon of the Legion of Honor at his buttonhole. His face showed anxiety. As M. Labori lashed him with pointed questions the colonel hesitated and then answered in a short, choppy manner, and when M. Labori finally disposed of him the witness left the platform with the pale face and scared look of a man who has awakened from a nightmare.

Counsel had drawn from the colonel a confession that the secret dossier was communicated to the judges of the courtmartial in 1894 by Colonel Du Paty de Clam. This avowal produced a sensation in court and Maurel's declaration that he only read one of the documents did not affect the main fact. His claim that the document had no effect upon him as his mind was already made up, was nullified by his subsequent declaration that this one document sufficed to convince him.

Pointed Questions Asked.

M. Labori then put a series of pointed questions to General Mercier with reference to the communication of the secret dossier for the courtmartial and his attitude in 1894 and an interested scene ensued.

The general refused to reply to all the questions and there were sharp passages-at-arms between counsel and Colonel Jouaust who upheld General Mercier, while the dialogue between the general and M. Labori became acrimonious. Counsel became very heated and showed it in his voice and gestures. The general, however, troubled his mind might he, seldom departed from the callous demeanor characteristic of him.

The lawyer made a strong point on the part Esterhazy played. Mercier said he did not know Esterhazy and only saw him once at the Zola trial.

"This is very interesting," exclaimed M. Labori, "but surely General Mercier attended Esterhazy's trial?"

The general replied that he was not there and that he knew nothing about the evidence in the Esterhazy prosecution.

"What," cried M. Labori, "General Mercier, who was the chief accuser of Dreyfus, did not even follow the proceedings in the Esterhazy trial?"

A loud murmur of surprise and indignation came from the audience, but Colonel Jouaust immediately suppressed it. Counsel then brought General Mercier to his assertion that 35,000,000 francs were sent by the defenders of Dreyfus and asked the general to say how he knew who spent it and other awkward questions which the general was unable to answer.

A question as to how the bordereau arrived at the office of the general staff, its date, etc., was then introduced which led to a strange scene for a court of law.

General Roget, on mounting the platform to give explanations, was followed by General De Boislesfre, M. Grihelin, Major Lauth and other military witnesses, all holding up their hands to signify that they desired to speak, while at the same time M. Labori was firing questions.

The result was a perfect babel until the president of the court could stand it no longer and when the government commissary, Major Carriere also interpolated a few remarks, Colonel Jouaust turned to him and asked him to be quiet, remarking that the judges could not hear half a dozen people at the same time.

During the course of the morning M. Labori questioned General Mercier with reference to a document in the secret dossier, which, it is affirmed, existed prior to 1894 and it was not produced at the first courtmartial of the prisoner.

The general confessed that he did not know of its existence and the same statement was elicited from General Goussier, who declared that Colonel Sandherr was responsible for its non-production. These replies were tantamount to a confession that Colonel Sandherr and Lieutenant Colonel Henry played with the minister of war and even that General Goussier, assistant chief of the headquarters staff, the chief of the intelligence department, keeping from the two latter just what he pleased. Then M. Labori proceeded to take up the Panizzardi dispatch and to bring out the contradictory translations of it and the falseness of the final version.

After hearing General Mercier and General Chanoine on the subject, Colonel Jouaust declared the court would rule the dispatch out of evidence.

The examination of General Mercier having been concluded, Colonel Jouaust asked Dreyfus if he had anything to say, and the prisoner, in a calm voice, replied to General Mercier's statement that he (Dreyfus) could have obtained the information about the artillery promised in the bordereau while staying at Bourges, where artillery trials were being held. Dreyfus entered into an explanation as to how he spent his time showing that he did not inform himself about the trials of the new gun brake. General Rishour recounted what Captain Lehrun-Renault said about Dreyfus and this brought the latter to his feet with a thrilling declaration. He pointed out that the captain shook him by the hand when he returned to the prison which is at variance with what General Rishour recounted.

"Moreover, continued Dreyfus, when a frightful charge has been hanging over a man's head for five years, the court ought not to talk of convictions but should bring proofs. Otherwise I cease to understand the matter."

This indignant protest caused a deep sensation in court.

Continuing, Dreyfus proceeded to totally deny the story that he had made a confession to Captain Lehrun-Renault.

A number of other witnesses were heard, including M. Quessay de Beaurepaire's friend, Muller, who was responsible for the story that he found a marginal note on the subject of the arrest of Dreyfus in a newspaper on Emperor William's departure for Potsdam. He testified to this effect.

The refusal of Colonel Jouaust to permit General Roget to be recalled which occurred during the proceedings was looked upon as indicating, a desire to shorten the case.

Cavalgnac Will Explain.

Rennes, Aug. 24.—Godfrey Cavalgnac, ex-minister of war, is about to publish a brochure in which he will attempt to explain his attitude in the Dreyfus affair. He will analyze those telegrams, the original text of which is in German and will endeavor to prove Captain Dreyfus' guilt thereby.

Expedition of Scientists.

San Francisco, Aug. 24.—The United States steamer Albatross sailed for the southern Pacific with a party of scientists, under the direction of Professor Agassiz. The expedition will make an exhaustive research of the islands in the southern Pacific, and it is expected that much will be discovered that is new and of great interest to the scientific world.

Big Purchase of Oil Lands.

Bluffton, Ind., Aug. 24.—Probably the largest block of Wells county oil leases that changed hands since the field developed was sold. Nearly 30,000 acres in Chester and Jackson townships were transferred by Samuel W. Tait of Montpellier to the Standard Oil company.

UNDER SWAY OF QUAY

Governor Stone's Action In Appointing Him Commended.

ANTI-QUAY MEN OPPOSE IT.

Republicans of Pennsylvania Meet In State Convention and Select Candidates For Offices. Platform Outlined.

Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 24.—The Republican state convention nominated Colonel James Barnett of the Tenth regiment for state treasurer, J. Hay Brown of Lancaster for supreme court judge, and Josiah R. Adams of Philadelphia for superior court judge.

The nomination for supreme judge is equivalent to an election by reason of two vacancies and no elector being entitled to vote for more than one person.

The platform endorses the administration of President McKinley and Governor Stone, commends the executive for his appointment of Quay to the United States senate, and pledges the party to a reduction in the expenditures of the departments of the state government.

A feature of the convention was the presence of Senator Quay as a delegate from Beaver county and the absence of State Senator C. L. Magee of Pittsburg, who is convalescent from a severe illness.

David E. Martin was also missing from his accustomed place in the Philadelphia delegation. Senator Penrose and Congressman Bingham entered the convention hall together and were greeted with applause.

A demonstration was made in Senator Quay's honor when he entered the hall, accompanied by State Chairman Elkins.

A meeting of Anti-Quay delegates was held prior to the convention at which it was decided to vote for Bryan for supreme judge and Hon. Dimmes Beebe of Philadelphia for superior court judge. Mr. Beebe is a member of the superior court by appointment of Governor Hastings and his term will expire next January.

It was also agreed to vote for Colonel Barnett and oppose the plank in the platform, endorsing Governor Stone's appointment of Senator Quay.

The convention was called to order by Chairman Elkin and Senator Penrose, who was unanimously elected temporary chairman, sounded the keynote in a rather lengthy speech.

A plank in the platform endorsing the appointment of Senator Quay by Governor Stone was opposed in a speech by State Senator Flinn, but the platform as submitted was adopted by the convention 192 ayes to 49 noes.

Mississippi Nominates.

Jackson, Miss., Aug. 24.—The state Democratic convention adjourned after having named the following ticket: Governor, A. H. Longino of Washington county; lieutenant governor, J. T. Harrison of Lowndess; secretary of state, J. L. Power of Hinds, renominated; attorney general, Monroe McClure of Leflore; auditor, W. O. Cole of Water Valley; treasurer, Robert Stours of Lafayette; superintendent of public education, H. L. Whitfield; land commissioner, E. H. Nail of Holmes, renominated; revenue agent, Wirt Adams of Hinds, renominated; railroad commissioners, A. Q. Mays, J. J. McInnis, renominated; Clay Kincannon; clerk of supreme court, E. B. Brown of Copiah, renominated.

A Military Expedition.

Washington, Aug. 24.—The state department does not apprehend that any international complication will arise of General Otis' course in excluding Chinese from the Philippines, as this is said to be only a temporary military expedient, leaving the general question to be determined by congress. Moreover, it seems that the exclusion of Chinese comes about through the adoption of military regulations following the lines of United States laws and not by the detailed enforcement of the United States statutes relating to Chinese exclusion. While the same end is attained, yet the distinction is made that congress is the only body which can apply a United States law to the Philippines, although the military authorities may adopt temporary steps.

General Miles Talks.

New York, Aug. 24.—General Nelson A. Miles is quoted as saying: "The new secretary of war is a man of business. As a result very different conditions already exist. The interests of the country have demanded a vigorous prosecution of the war in the Philippines; now they will have it. I know nothing about a change of commanders on the islands. My command of the army has nothing to do with the administration. As major general commanding, I am responsible for the health and discipline of the army. Both are in excellent condition. General Otis is a fine officer. That has been demonstrated by the splendid morale of the army, its health and its efficiency in the field in the Philippines."

GOVERNOR SAYERS

Says the Mexican Government is Estopped From Inquiry.

Austin, Tex., Aug. 24.—The recent torture inflicted upon six Mexican prisoners confined in the Hidalgo county jail by officials of that county in an effort to extort confessions has become an international affair. Four of the prisoners claim to be citizens of Mexico and they appealed to President Porfirio Diaz for aid and redress. The appeal was referred to the Mexican ambassador at Washington. The latter has taken the matter in hand. Governor Sayers received a telegram from the Mexican consul at San Antonio, Tex., as follows: "If you have finished your investigation regarding the six Mexican prisoners in the Hidalgo county jail, complaining of ill treatment, will you kindly wire me the result, as the Mexican embassy is solicitous about the matter."

Governor Sayers replied to the consul's telegram as follows:

"My information derived from W. N. Parks is that the parties so confined are citizens of Texas. If this be true I cannot recognize the right of your government to take cognizance of the matter, having expatriated themselves from their native country. Under our naturalization laws if they become citizens of this state the Mexican government is estopped from inquiry in to the matter. From information derived from another and entirely independent source, however, I am led to believe that there is some doubt as to the citizenship of one of the parties so confined. Into this particular I am now making inquiry and will advise you at the earliest moment practicable."

Price of Matches Advanced.

Chicago, Aug. 24.—Matches have advanced in price from 20 to 25 per cent. within the last 60 days and dealers say there is reason to expect, under present conditions, another advance before the end of September. During June and earlier in the year the independent match manufacturers were at war with the Diamond Match company and prices were demoralized, the cheaper grades selling as low as 63 cents a gross. The war on prices, however, was brought to an end by the Diamond Match company buying several independent companies. The Continental, bought from Edwin Gould, was among the first to be absorbed.

Will Probably Accept.

Chicago, Aug. 24.—Secretary La Pointe, of the Canadian Veterans' Association of Chicago received a letter from Premier Laurier of Canada in response to a letter of inquiry in which the Canadian premier said that he would in all probability accept the invitation to attend the fall festival in Chicago in October when the formal invitation was received by him. Premier Laurier also stated that the governor general and most of the members of the Canadian cabinet would accompany him.

To Control Dry Goods.

New York, Aug. 24.—Arrangements are maturing for the organization of a $50,000,000 dry goods corporation in this city to control and operate dry goods and department stores throughout the country. The mercantile reorganization company has recently been incorporated in Trenton, N. J., as a preliminary to creating the big corporation. It is expected that the corporation will be launched in time for the fall trade.

On Four Special Trains.

Chicago, Ills., Aug. 24.—Captain Palmer, chief quartermaster of the department of the lakes, completed arrangements for the transportation of Thirty-first infantry from Fort Thomas, Ky., to San Francisco, from which port they sail for the Philippines on September 10. Four special trains will be utilized and it is expected the entire regiment will be on the seaboard by September 1. The first detachment has started.

General Hale Discharged.

Washington, Aug. 24.—An order was issued at the war department probably discharging from the volunteer army Brigadier General Irving Hale, to take effect October 1. General Hale went to the Philippines as colonel of the First Colorado and was made a brigadier general for gallant service. General Hale arrived at San Francisco.

Arrived at Manila.

Washington, Aug. 24.—General Otis reported the arrival of the transport Newport at Manila. Private Elmer Raymond, company B, Nineteenth infantry, died on board August 7 of uraemiae. There were no other casualties.

With the Queen.

London, Aug. 24.—The Marquis of Salisbury spent the evening with Queen Victoria. It is believed the grave situation of affairs in the Transvaal was partly responsible for the premier's visit to her majesty.

Willing to Enlist.

Johannesburg, Aug. 24.—At a meeting here of 200 Germans a committee was appointed to express to the Transvaal government the willingness of the Germans to volunteer for service in case of war, but requesting that they be enrolled in a separate corps on account of the hardships endured by the Germans in the Magato campaign.

GENERAL OTIS

Announces the Successful Mission of Bates to Jolo Islands.

Washington, Aug. 24.—General Otis cabled the war department that General Bates has returned from his conference with the Moros confirming the press dispatches as to the results of the mission. General Otis says:

"General Bates returned. Mission successful. Agreement made with sultan and Datus whereby sovereignty of United States over entire Jolo archipelago acknowledged; its flag to fly on land and sea. United States to occupy and control all points deemed necessary. Introducing firearms, prohibited. Sultan to assist in suppressing piracy. Agrees to deliver criminals accused of crime not committed by Moros against Moros. Relations between United States troops and all Moros very friendly. Two other points in archipelago will be occupied by United States troops when trade and commerce can be controlled. Moros western Mindanao friendly, ask permission to drive out insurgents. Reports by mail."

Russian Millionaire Falls.

London, Aug. 24.—The Leader publishes a dispatch from its St. Petersburg correspondent saying that the suspension of M. Vonderweiss, a millionaire of that city, has produced a depressing effect on the bourse and in financial circles. His capital was estimated to be between 50,000,000 and 60,000,000 roubles, but after his debts are paid he will scarcely have 6,000,000 roubles left. His fortune was largely sunk in a group of undertakings, each one supporting the other. He regarded one of the most important systems of railroads in Russia as his own and he was connected with this road and with a number of steamers plying on the Volga and the Caspian sea, a machine factory, an insurance company and smaller concerns.

Were Paule Stricken.

Washington, Aug. 24.—General Otis cabled the war department the names of the men who were drowned while crossing the San Mateo river on the 21st. They were Sergeant Thomas W. Countee, Private William Carter, John Dean, J. E. Johnson, Edward Jones, Thomas Russell, Emmett McMillan, Hampton Kendall and George Moody, all of company G, Twenty-fourth infantry. Following drowned in attempting to rescue others: Private J. E. Poole, company H, Twenty-fourth, and one private, Fourth cavalry, whose name has not yet been learned. General Otis says the men jumped from the boat in a panic.

Quay In Control.

Harrisburg, Aug. 24.—There is nothing to indicate that there will be any change in the program arranged for the Republican state convention by United States Senator Quay and his lieutenants. Even the most radical opponents of the senator concede that he will control the convention and that the ticket and platform will be framed in accordance with his wishes.

Marquette, Mich., Aug. 24.—Father Frederick Els was consecrated fourth bishop of the Catholic diocese of Sault Ste Marie and Marquette. Archbishop Katzer of Milwaukee officiated.

WEATHER FORECAST.—Generally fair and continued warm Friday and Saturday; variable winds.

WE submit that there was nothing done during the convention at Louisville half so dishonorable and showing such utter want of good faith as the action of many of the bolters at Lexington and since.

That letter of Rev. Stanley concerning the gubernatorial race has the true ring about it and will doubtless do much good. He is the father of young A. O. Stanley who made such fine speeches in '96 for the silver interest.

SOME of the bolters assume to be very punctilious on the subject of honor, not considering that they have violated all honor and good faith in pursuing the course they have, after remaining in the convention and taking part in all its proceedings until the close.

JOHN WHALLEN, who is generally spoken of as the most unscrupulous politician in Louisville, appears as one of the leaders of the Boltocrats. The Brownie purists don't show much consistency in hobnobbing with such as Whallen. This man Whallen is vitally interested in the result of the election. What he wants is control of the municipal government of Louisville. Give him that, and he doesn't care a snap who is Governor.

JOHN WHALLEN conferred all afternoon with the two committees. He was one of the select few allowed into room 240. Dr. Berry was one of the others. Whallen came and went, advising here and receiving advice there. He was by far the busiest man in the crowd, not excepting Messrs. W. H. Sweeney and Theodore Hallam.

The above is taken from a Louisville paper's account of the meeting of the Boltocratic State committees. What choice company the Brownie purists select! They can't plead ignorance as to this man Whallen's reputation in Louisville, and yet they allow him to practically run their campaign.

DIPHTHERIA.

Two deaths from diphtheria have occurred at the County Infirmary and another child is ill with the dread disease.

The county health authorities should leave nothing undone to confine it to the present quarters and stamp it out at once.

It will require every precaution to prevent a spread of the disease.

EX-GOVERNOR CRITTENDEN.

An Old Friend of Brown Predicts That Goebel Will Win by 25,000 Majority.

LEXINGTON, Ky., August 21.—The following letter was received here from ex-Governor T. T. Crittenden, of Missouri: I expect to take a run over to Kentucky this fall. I want to go there to see you all and to witness the great canvass for Governor. If I were there and had a vote, as much as I love John Young Brown, the best friend I ever had for fifty years, I would vote for Goebel. I wrote Brown he was making the mistake of his life. I cannot understand the movement. He is placed in the hands and under the control of those whom he has fought all his life, and is being used indirectly by the greatest corporation in the State to accomplish its infamous end. I just read Goebel's speech at Mayfield. I am somewhat of a politician, or used to be, being now only an old man around the house, and I make this prediction that Goebel will be elected by 25,000 majority and my dear old friend, John Brown, will be buried beyond the heads of political resurrection or redemption. I regret this, as he is too good a man to die such a death.

BRADLEY AGAINST TAYLOR.

The Governor's Crowd Down on the Deboe-Hunter Gang of Republicans.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 23.—General W. S. Taylor proved to be no stronger physically than the other campaigners, and the excessive heat at London yesterday almost knocked him out. At the close of his speech Taylor was not strong enough to remain and shake hands with those crowding about him for a greeting. All of the Deboe-Hunter leaders in the party were at London. Senator Deboe was not called upon for a speech.

The Bradley leaders are keeping in the background. Governor Bradley is still sulking in his tent. There is no telling what he may do before the close of the campaign. It is predicted that if Bradley is not brought in line and placed upon the stump for at least one speech in Taylor's interest it will cost the ticket dearly.

The opening of the Republican campaign at Williamsburg, a day ahead of the scheduled opening at London, has developed an interesting condition existing in that party and reveals the master hand of Governor Bradley. Whitley County is a Bradley stronghold. His friends there are many and hold State and county offices.

The Bradley-Ramsey folks, who were defeated at Lexington convention, have declined to take an active interest in the campaign. At the eleventh hour the campaign committee at Louisville sent Judge Holt, ex-member of the Court of Appeals, to make an address Monday afternoon, because it was Circuit Court day. Bradley and his friends got the appointment, the first of the campaign, and a day ahead of the formal opening.

FIGHT THE TRUST.

Bitter Feeling Against the Continental Tobacco Combine—Lively Times Ahead.

[Augusta Chronicle.]

As evidence of the intense feeling the farmers of this, the white burley district, have against the trusts, we learn that the Continental Tobacco Company placed an agent and buyer each at Ripley and Moscow, but they were unable to rent a house in which to handle the weed.

Characteristic of a trust, it was not to be outdone, so a warehouse will be built by it at each of the above named towns. When this company, with its octopus-like arms, reach out and crowd the local buyer from the field, then God pity the poor farmer, who will be compelled to take just what the trust offers him for the product which he has labored so hard to raise.

The antagonism towards the trust in the vicinity across the river is not to be wondered at, when it is known that the village of Feesburg, in Brown County, was recently the scene where the tobacco made by the combines was taken by farmers from a grocery store to the street, piled in a heap and burned in broad daylight.

A BAPTIST MINISTER.

Rev. B. F. Hungerford Will Take the Stump For Goebel—Supporter of Bryan.

SHELBYVILLE, Ky., August 22.—Rev. B. F. Hungerford, a prominent Baptist minister of this place, has tendered his services to the Democratic State Campaign Committee and will take the stump for Goebel and the ticket. His first speech will likely be made at Taylorsville next Monday. The reverend gentleman has a great influence all over the State and denounces in severe terms the unwarranted attacks made on Senator Goebel. He is a fluent and forcible speaker and well versed in the political conditions that confront the people. He was an ardent supporter of Bryan at the last Presidential election.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and I thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at J. Jas. Wood's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1. Guaranteed or price refunded.

Baldwin & Co., the largest piano manufacturing concern in the West. Years ago Mr. Baldwin was a resident of Maysville, and was a teacher of music at that time. While here he was an intimate friend of the late Walter E. Neal. The latter's oldest son, Dr. D. B. Neal, of Little Rock, was named for Mr. Baldwin.

Last Week at Electric Park.

Last night a large and appreciative audience was convulsed with merriment over the many ludicrous situations which crowded after one another in "My Uncle From Japan." This third presentation of this laughable farce (this time by special request) was even better, if possible, than either of the previous ones.

To-night there will be another complete change of program. Mr. Murray and his clever company will appear in a rip-roaring farce in three acts entitled, "The Slow Mr. Swift." This is one of their winners—every bit as good as the very best which they have presented heretofore.

Remember that the park closes Saturday night. Don't lose these last two chances to have a hearty laugh.

ELOQUENT SPEECHES.

Settle and Clayton Delighted a Large and Enthusiastic Audience at the Court House Last Night.

Alabama's able speaker, the Hon. H. D. Clayton, divided honors with Kentucky's brilliant and eloquent son, Hon. Evan E. Settle, at the court house last evening. It was a large and enthusiastic audience that greeted them, and that the crowd was heartily in sympathy with the sentiments of the speakers was evidenced by the applause which greeted almost every reference to Democracy's leaders, Bryan, Goebel and Blackburn.

Mr. Clayton spoke first. He contracted a cold at Winchester this week, and was very hoarse at first, but after warming up spoke with more ease. He is a man of fine presence, and a speaker of ability. He spoke for over an hour.

The eloquent Mr. Settle then followed in a speech of one hour. After hearing him, one does not wonder that he enjoys such a wide reputation as an orator. He has that magnetism that holds his hearers from his first sentence. No man ever won a place in the front ranks of the Nation's able and eloquent speakers quicker than Mr. Settle on his appearance in Congress. Those who failed to hear him last night missed a rare treat.

Both speeches were strong pleas to Democrats to remain true to their party in the present conflict. Both speakers paid splendid tributes to Mr. Goebel, as a gentleman who had by his own energy and application worked his way up from a poor boy, until now he ranks among Kentucky's ablest and foremost citizens.

Superior and Kentucky DISC DRILLS

Are King and Queen of all Drills. Their superiority over all competitors are too well known to need comment, suffice it to say that we placed over sixty of these Drills the past season and have yet the first complaint from a single purchaser. On the other hand every one who used them stand ready and willing to give their testimonial as to the superior work done by them, and their unanimous verdict is if you expect to purchase a Drill this season, get either the and no other. Do not delay placing your orders and there will be no disappointments, as is the case each season when we are forced to resort to the river and express, which makes an additional expense. Every Drill is warranted to be just as represented. Do not allow yourself to be talked into buying some inferior Drill for the sake of saving a few dollars. Remember the cheapest is not the best, but the best is always the cheapest. Respectfully,

MRS. ANNE PHISTER,

Widow of the Late Dr. John Phister, Died This Morning at Her Home on East Third Street.

Mrs. Anne Phister, widow of the late Dr. John Phister, died this morning at 3:30 o'clock at the family residence on East Third street. She had been an invalid for over a year, and her condition for a long time had been such that her family realized that the end was liable to come at any moment.

Mrs. Phister was a daughter of Nat and Sarah (Patterson) Poyntz and was seventy-two years of age. She was a native of Maysville and spent her life in this city, where she always enjoyed the love and esteem of her wide circle of friends. Three children survive her, Captain Nat P. Phister, of the First U. S. Infantry, Mrs. Basil Duke, of this city, and Mrs. Herbert N. Reno, of Cincinnati.

The funeral arrangements have not been announced.

POLICE JUDGE A. H. HOLDERNESSE, of Vanceburg, mistook Sam Bellamy for a squirrel while hunting Wednesday and shot him in the arm and stomach, thirty shot taking effect. His condition is serious.

THOMAS WELLS SLATTERY, the four-year-old son of Superintendent Ed. Slattery of the County Infirmary, died this morning about 6 o'clock, of diphtheria. The case is an unusually sad one. Narcissa Dixon, aged about fifteen, a homeless girl, was sent to the institution some days ago, and was stricken with the dread disease shortly afterwards, dying Tuesday. Mr. Slattery's child was taken ill that day, and now falls a victim. Another child, an inmate of the infirmary, is ill with the disease. The remains of Mr. Slattery's child will be interred at Washington to-morrow at 10 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Slattery's friends sympathize with them in their loss.

Barlow Bros. Minstrels.

"The great Barlow Minstrels made their annual appearance at Powers' Opera House to an excellent house. It is a fact worthy of notice, that at each successive trip of this famous organization, vacant down stairs seats have been few and far between. It follows that an attraction able to fill that portion of the theater is one of intrinsic merit. The musical portion was particularly strong. The ballads were pretty renditions. The monologue work of Mr. Harry Ward was very funny, while Cohn and Baldwin met with an ovation that must have been exceedingly pleasant to those comedians. Taken altogether the Barlow show far surpasses the usual minstrel attraction."—Grand Rapids Democrat.

At Washington Opera House next Monday night. Popular prices—25, 35 and 50 cents. Tickets on sale at Nelson's.

PITHY POLITICAL POINTS.

The people of Mt. Olivet know a good thing when they see it.

There's no office, however high, that will justify or compensate the aspirant therefor in studying himself.

We heard of some church members at Mt. Olivet who favored whisky, but then all church members are not Christians by a big jump.

It behooves parents to be at least as much on the alert for their sons' safety from drunkenness as the saloons evidence for their destruction.

People cannot afford to invite whisky into a place by their votes any more than they could afford to vote in idleness, or gambling, or stealing.

We are glad to note that there were not enough church members who voted for whisky out at Mt. Olivet to affect those who made no such pretensions.

Mr. Brown wouldn't have exchanged one such nomination as he sought at Louisville for an even dozen like that he received at Lexington, we suspect.

Whisky people are not elated at the condemnation and disapproval that is constantly being put upon their traffic by towns and communities when it comes to a vote.

A town where there are no saloons does not furnish a standing crowd of young men and boys, full of profanity and villainy, ready to insult men and women who come in their reach.

No one might say with certainty what the outcome will be of the gubernatorial race, but anyone can predict, with every assurance, that Mr. Brown will come out at the "little end of the horn."

A traffic that makes idlers, loafers, swimmers, gamblers, murderers, tramps, pick-pockets, thieves and wife-beaters is not one whit above such immoralities, on the principle that a stream cannot rise above the fountain or source thereof.

We are sorry to see our old esteemed friend, Dr. E. O. Guerrant, mixed up with that crowd of bolters. The doctor ought to know that they are using him simply as a cat's paw, and that he has everything to lose and nothing to gain by such an enterprise. We sincerely hope he will see his way clear to leave such questionable company and return to the party of the people against trusts, combinations, moneyed aristocracy and bloated millionaires. The doctor is too good a man to be associated with such a combination.

"Have by some surgeon Shylock on thy charge to stop his wounds lest he do bleed to death." People can bleed to death. The loss of blood weakens the body. It must follow that gain of blood gives the body strength. The strengthening effect of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is in large part due to its action on the blood-making glands and the increased supply of pure, rich blood it produces. It is only when the blood is impoverished and impure that disease finds a soil in which to root. The "Discovery" purifies the blood and makes it antagonistic to disease. When the body is emancipated, the lungs are weak, and there is obstinate lingering cough, "Golden Medical Discovery" puts the body on a fighting footing against disease, and so increases the vitality that disease is thrown off, and physical health perfectly and permanently restored. It has cured thousands who were hopeless and helpless, and who had tried all other means of cure without avail.

Twenty-one one-cent stamps to cover expense of mailing only will obtain a copy of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 pages, in paper cover. Send thirty-one stamps if cloth binding is preferred. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
